ONE TAKE SUPER 8

REEL #1

Art Walk

Melissa Williamson

Art walk is inspired by a stack of handwritten answers written on cue cards at a Saskatoon Story Slam. The audience was asked a simple question: what brings joy? This film follows a single roll of Super 8 film through the Riversdale Art Walk in search of those moments of creativity, connection and community.

Rock Dove

Ania Dachskatze

It should be easy to make a film about pigeons; you throw food and they come to you. That's how it worked in Poland. But in Saskatoon the pigeons are wary and keep their distance. Perhaps because, here, they have been systematically poisoned. This a chaotic attempt at capturing their lives on film. Turns out pigeons live "at the edge of chaos".
